VOL. XLV

The best thing to give to your enemy is forgiveness; to an opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your child, a good example; to a father, deference; to your mother, conduct that will make her proud of you; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity.

STUDENT LIFE

MR. RALPH L. DUPLIN

... as Lt. Commander in the United States Naval Reserve

DEDICATION

In his thirty-five years of service in the Winthrop School System, Mr. Duplin has given invaluable aid and guidance to the many students who have come in contact with him. As a teacher he has provided a sound, fundamental course in mathematics. As chairman of the Math Department, as sub-master and as principal, he has striven to make Winthrop High School a prime institution for secondary education.

But perhaps what Mr. Duplin will be most remembered for is something not taught in a classroom. He has always tried to instill in the students a sense of maturity and responsibility. He has shown them that there is a whole world at their feet, and what they make of their lives is up to them. In short, he has provided them with the incentive to become useful, productive members of society and good citizens of their country.

To show our deep appreciation for what you have given us, Mr. Duplin, we, the students of Winthrop Senior High School, dedicate this book to you.

SUPERINTENDENT

Arthur W. Dalrymple

TO THE CLASS OF 1970:

Graduation from high school is probably the single most important event of your lives thus far. It is my sincere hope that during this period you have achieved not only academic proficiency, but a maturity of thought and character which will aid you in choosing a career and in leading a life not only marked by personal achievement but enriched by service to others. Congratulations on your graduation, and Godspeed on your journey.

Sincerely, your friend,

Arthur W. Dalrymple

PRINCIPAL

In 1970 I terminate forty years in the field of education, the last thirty-five in the Winthrop School Department. I have served as principal of Winthrop High School for the past ten years. At the end of the present school year I plan to retire. Probably I will continue to enjoy life elsewhere.

I wish every Senior my sincere and heartfelt wishes for a successful future. Try your best to attain high achievement in all areas of life. You are the future.

This page is respectfully dedicated to the memory of those boys who attended Winthrop High School and gave their lives in Vietnam. Not long ago their voices were part of the general hubbub of our lunchroom; their joys and sorrows part of the emotional din that is Winthrop High School. We realize that mere words cannot honor them, but words are indeed all that we have to give.

It is desirable to differentiate courses of study with this thought: one student will be better adapted for the study of history, another for law, while some perhaps had better be packed off to the country.

A DAY IN THE LIFE . . .

The office is the Senior's second home.

Once in the morning does it!!

Exciting classes . . .

Senior turned furniture-mover.

. . . and thrilling lunches!!

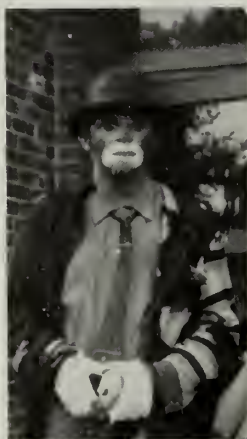

Seniors at work ...

... or at play!!

What form!!!

... OF THE WHS SENIOR!

I remember being a Senior better than the years before.

I remember the very first day of that last year.

I remember Heath Bars, Mint Truffles, the Ritz and Roland's.

I remember washing cars (and friends) on the day after the Jamboree.

I remember Tennessee Williams and Roget Andrews.

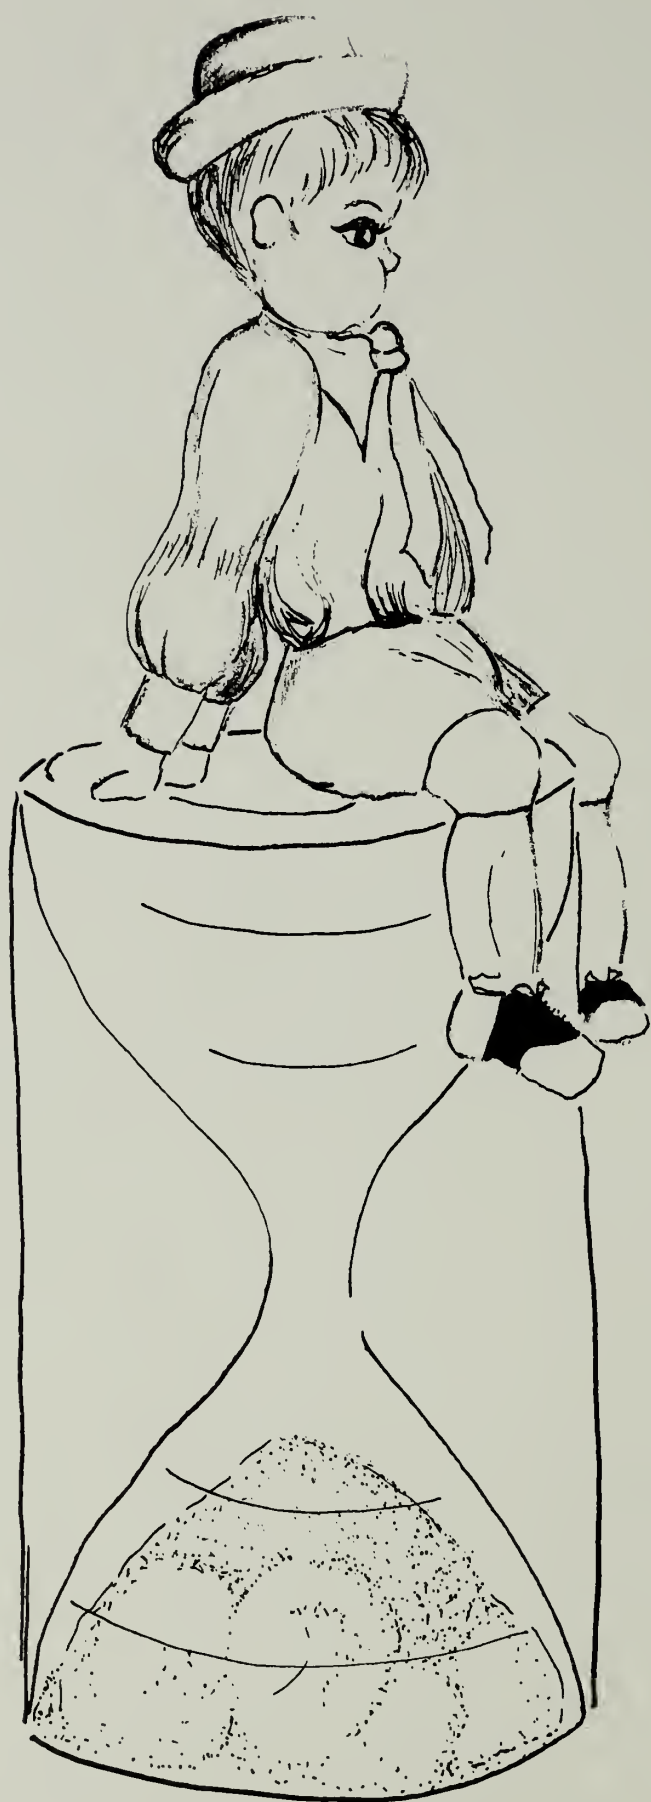

I remember "People" and the "Chateau de Ville" at mid-night.

I remember handsome men and beautiful women on June 4.

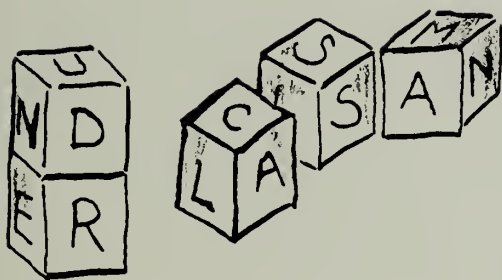

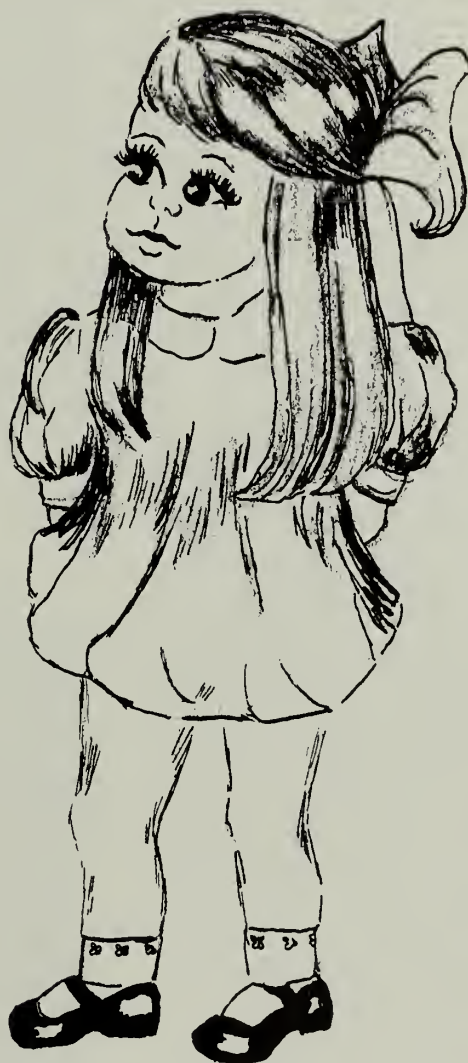

I remember caps and gowns and deciding my future for myself (and no one else).

I remember new and old friends in classmates and faculty.

I'll always remember; this will always "ECHO."

*REMEMBER A'S
REMEMBER B'S
BUT MOST OF ALL REMEMBER THESE*

- Sept. 3 First day—Wednesday; on Monday's schedule
- 4 The real confusion starts when everyone thinks it's Tuesday. Local riot squad called to quell the student demonstration in the guidance office over teacher assignments.
- 5 Confusion settled—who could mistake a FRIDAY for anything else but ...
- 7 We've just discovered that Ricky Kane is qualified to teach Trig. Your contract will be in your locker in the morning.
- 18 Steve Crews, fearless cross-country champ, came to school all wet. Tomorrow he'll walk around the ditch. Good work Steve.
- 19 Sr. assembly: Mr. Scire expresses his appreciation to our class for the projected 10 car washers and 6 rags. We've got spirit, right? Well ...
- 20 Sr. class soaks the town for over $330 in its first car wash.
- 21 Sr. class as a whole comes down with pneumonia.
- 22 Sr. class recovers temporarily for Tuesday and Wednesday night Candy drive.
- 24 Senior class has a post-candy drive run-in with Roland's. Roland's wins!
- 25 Senior class parades into the school single file singing "The Banana Splits Theme Song." Teachers prepare for another long day.

That's what happens to kids in the halls without passes!

I want to drink your blod!

(empirical wt.) \times = mol. wt.

Togetherhness

October

- Oct. 1 Leona Bombaci and Mary Jo Bonasoro are seen thumbing on 129 with a sign "Salem State or Bust." Chico stops to pick them up.
- 3 Davey Crocket is alive and well in 108!
- 6 Football captain Jerry Case is devoted to his sport both on and off the field. If there's any doubt in your mind, there is a car on Shore Drive which bears the evidence of a Case tackle.
- 10 Dave Tallent was groovin with his Cheerios today. Newburyport's get up and go, just got up and went!!
- 14 Seniors plan for the "Big Moratorium Walkout" at 12:00 to-morrow.
- 15 Seniors chicken out of the Big Walkout!
- 21 Defensive End Gino DeAngelis confused his signals when he tackled Pep Club President Jane "Spirit" Doherty during locker break outside of the Art room. What's The Score Gino??
- 24 Tests on Macbeth are returned. Shakespeare defeats the Senior English classes for another year!!
- 27 Round 2 of the never ending battle between Gino DeAngelis and Jane Doherty ended with a T.K.O. awarded to Jane due to some refereeing on the part of Mrs. Bloom.
- 29 Could it be? Steve Daly is really selling his "rapid, red, racing, road runner?" Does this mean that there will be no "fantastic, fiery, flamboyant, fickle, fifty-seven Ford" to complement Kevin Cowan's "dreadful, derelect, dark grey, deceptively driven, dubiously designed Dodge" outside of school every morning??
- 30 Rumor has it that the beautiful redhaired, green eyed girl in 113B is really a Blue eyed blond! Right, Debbie Dimes?

November

- Nov. 1 Cheers to our boys for their stunning performance in beating Marblehead 22-0 today. What we may lack in experience, we more than make up for in enthusiasm and spirit.
- 3 Steve Doty has been unmasked as 113B's phantom—"Your eyes are like diamonds, sparkling ..."
- 5 History in the making. Owen Gallagher stays awake one whole period of Government class.
- 7 Fazo begins his three day weekend!!
- 9 Randy Raimondi and Jane Harrington go through the day without a fight!
- 12 Alan Weinstein is an avid airplane architect also known as a frustrating, flying machine fanatic!
- 19 Mrs. Bernstein resists the temptation to perform her modern jazz routine to the accompaniment of the visiting Navy band.
- 20 Lisa Hirsh gives a friend in need the slip!
- 23 Denise Krute gets a new car—there was no more room for her weekly dent!
- 26 Lesley Awards for outstanding performances in our rally production in "Peter Pan in Vikingland" go to Richard DeGregorio in his prize winning performance as a crocodile, John Dowd and Tina Pimentel, best actor and actress in a dramatic role; Gino DeAngelis and Mike Cummings for best supporting actresses(?) and Randy Herdt for best supporting actor.
- 27 Winthrop Vikings ruin Revere 24-19 at our annual Thanksgiving game. Are we great or what!?!
- 28 Senior Social—What else can we say!?!

Who said man can't fly!

mmmmmm ... burnt hair smells so good.

See how high I can jump in my P.F. Flyers!!

faker!!

coochie, coochie, coo!!

December

- Dec. 1 Thought for the day—don't count your zins before they react.
- 5 Miss Stowell is considering putting up bars in the 113B senior homeroom zoo.
- 7 Paulette Comeau gives Diane Fielding lessons on how to score with a basketball player.
- 12 First night of the Senior Play!!!
- 13 The second night of the Sr. Play was fantastic, but the cast party at Mr. Wolf's house was even better!!!
- 17 George Barker and Alicia Grimes have a run in, literally, in their cars.
- 19 Elliot Steinberg informs us that he is the proud owner of a new (?) 1958 Chevy!!
- 21 For a first hand report on the trials and tribulations of teen-age love, Bob Boncore is available.
- 23 School closes for December vacation. Seniors take off for warmer parts.

Not again!

Well, it's like this.

January

- Jan. 5 School opens for a new year of a new decade—Graduation year!!!
- 8 Teresa G. splits hairs both literally and figuratively to Mr. deRosas' dismay.
- 10 Valerie Fox is voted most popular—but at Savio??
- 12 Misery is the beginning of three days of mid-year exams.
- 14 Seniors heave a collective sign of relief—our very last high school mid-years are over!!
- 20 Mr. Wolf shatters our childhood illusions still further—"Alice in Wonderland" is a political satire!!
- 21 So is "Culliver's Travels!!" This information is brought to us courtesy of Mr. deRosas.

MR. EDWIN MAC FARLAND

Like father like son.

DEDICATION

In his twenty years of teaching and coaching at Winthrop High School, Mr. MacFarland has given as much of himself as possible to his students. All those who have had him as a teacher know that he strives to make learning enjoyable and beneficial. All those he has coached know he has the spirit and drive needed to make participation in a sport worthwhile. Mr. MacFarland is that extraordinary inspiration that enables his football and track teams to try their best in every game and every meet. His accomplishments in both the teaching and coaching fields show that he has achieved two goals every teacher should strive for the imparting of something of value to his students, whether it be on the athletic field or in the classroom, and a friendship with his students.

Therefore the graduating class of 1970 wishes to make this special dedication, inadequate as it may be, to Mr. MacFarland, ex-Marine, former football coach, and a gentleman.

BOYS' HOCKEY

With tough competition in the North Shore League, our Vikings did a very respectable job by finishing third. Each year our hockey team has improved, but this past season was our best ever. The team's eight-five-one record included a hard-earned tie against powerful Saugus.

The boys played at Lynn Sports Center, on neutral ice. We had hockey cheerleaders to psyche the team, which usually got them flying all over the ice.

Once again the Merrimack Valley Championship belongs to the "gymmies." Captain Ray Green and Company showed their prominence despite the lack of time to work out in the gym.

Unusual body control distinguishes a gymnast. When it comes time to perform their routine, you observe their concentration and developed ability.

Five boys qualified for the State Individuals Meet at Framingham South; Jerry Case, Rich De Gregorio, Steve Finn, Ray Green, and Vinny Roche. Ray finished third in the all-around competition.

I. Thoughts about the hereafter

(or . . . Is there a life after graduation?)

Seriously, graduation isn't the end, you know. It's just the beginning. And it could be the beginning of one of the most challenging and fulfilling times of your life. At New England Telephone. It could be, that is, if you want a job with a challenge as big as your ambition. We need people at New England Telephone — all kinds. People who are sincerely interested in the future.

And who are looking for more from their job than just work! Your starting salary is good and you get automatic raises. You don't need experience! Your advancement is tailored to your talents. And you get excellent fringe benefits.
